- Boston Massacre of 1770
- Committees of Correspondence
- Boston Tea Party
- Lexington & Concord, 1775
- Declaration of Independence
- Battle of Yorktown, 1781

Here is an example of what needs to be in each identification:

Seven Year's War (French & Indian War): Major war between Britain & France, plus their Indian allies, that lasted from 1754-1763. Although major battles were fought in America, it was part of a larger war that was also being fought in Europe. Britain won the war, but was left with significant debt that left Britain searching for ways to earn money for the treasury.
