

North vs South in the Constitution

Name _____ Period _____

1. Why did Madison anticipate trouble at the Constitutional Convention?
2. What were the two main regions in 1787?
3. What was the major issue dividing the two regions?
4. Why were slaves so important to the South?
5. Madison felt that the problem wasn't the size of the state. He thought the problem was:
6. What topic brought the 1st conflict in the Convention?
7. Why did the North not want to count slaves for population?
8. What compromise solved the representation issue?
9. What was the next issue that divided the regions?
10. Why did some Northerners not oppose slavery?
11. What other trade issue were a problem?
12. In the compromise, what would not be taxed?
13. What compromise solved the slave trade problem?
14. Why was the South willing to compromise?
15. What invention made slavery even more profitable?
16. What did Washington warn against in his Farewell Address?