

Government Chapter 11.5: Non-Legislative Powers

Constitutional Amendments

-2 ways to propose an amendment

-
-

Electoral Duties

-Why the House would choose a President

-12th Amendment

-How it is done:

-Done twice:

-
-

-Why the Senate would choose a Vice President

-Reason:

-How it is done:

-Done once:

-25th Amendment

-What it says:

-Used twice:

-
-

Impeachment

-Overview

-Who can be tried:

-Offenses that can be tried:

-The process

-Who has the sole power to impeach?

-Who has the sole power to try the case?

-Required votes

-House Impeachment:

-Senate Trial:

-The Chief Justice is required to preside if:

- Sole penalty available:
- Trial in regular courts may be possible:
- To date
 - How many impeachments?
 - How many convictions?
- Name the Presidents actually impeached:
 -
 -

-Facts about Andrew Johnson's impeachment:

-Facts about Bill Clinton's impeachment:

- Definition of perjury

-Richard Nixon

- What was Watergate all about?
- What is a subpoena?
- Why did Nixon quit?

Executive Powers

-Presidential Appointments

- Which appointments must the Senate approve?
- What percentage of the Senate must approve?
- What is Senatorial Courtesy?

-Treaties

- Who makes treaties?
- Who approves treaties?
- Presidential consultation with Congress

Investigatory Power

- What is it?
- Who does it?
- 5 reasons: